

Quick guide to using SFPL's business databases

Go to our web site: www.sfpl.org

Click on Articles and Databases

The Articles and Databases page looks like this.

To jump to the business databases, click here.
(Click on a database name to open it.)

You'll be prompted to enter your library card number if you're outside the library.

To find a database by name, click on Alphabetical list.

Databases with business information:

- ❑ Associations Unlimited: Directory of organizations, including trade/professional associations.
- ❑ Business & Company Resource Center: Information and articles on companies & industries.
- ❑ D&B International Business Locator: Directory with basic contact info for companies.
- ❑ D&B Million Dollar Database: Basic info for U.S. companies. Searchable by industry.
- ❑ EBSCOHost Business Source Premier: Industry overviews, business articles, and more.
- ❑ InfoTrac OneFile: An article database with the widest full text coverage of general magazines.
- ❑ Kompass: International company directory, searchable by region, product, service, etc.
- ❑ LexisNexis Statistical: Statistical database for demographic, economic and business data.
- ❑ Mergent Online: Database with company financial info, annual reports, industry overviews, etc.
- ❑ Newspapers (Proquest): Article database with the widest full text newspaper coverage.
- ❑ Periodical Finder (Serials Solutions): Identify which magazines cover specific subjects.
- ❑ Rand California: Database of California statistics... economic, demographic, etc.
- ❑ Reference E-books: Gale Virtual Reference Library: Includes "Business Plans Handbook."
- ❑ Reference USA: Directory of U.S. companies. Searchable by industry, geography, size, etc.

San Francisco Public Library- Main Library

100 Larkin Street, SF CA 94102

Phone: (415) 557-4400 (ask for Business Dept.)

Hours: Mo 10-6, Tu 9-8, We 9-8, Th 9-8, Fr 12-6, Sa 10-6, Su 12-5

Updated January 2008